Port Wentworth's District 1 Councilwoman Gabrielle Nelson Appointed to Serve on National League of Cities' Small Cities Council.

Port Wentworth, GA — Gabrielle Nelson, Councilwoman, Port Wentworth, GA, has been appointed to the National League of Cities (NLC) 2023 Small Cities Council. Councilwoman Nelson was elected to a one-year term to develop and guide programs among local elected officials from similar communities. The appointment was announced by NLC President Mayor Victoria Woodards of Tacoma, Washington.

This appointment will be wonderful for Port Wentworth! It will help to keep the city informed of federal grant opportunities and ways to make the community the best it can be.

As a member of NLC's Small Cities Council, Councilwoman Nelson will play a key role among a diverse group of local leaders to encourage collaboration, networking and the development of resources and programs beneficial to communities that share demographics, size or location that can be replicated across the country.

"Our member councils give voice to what's happening on the ground in our communities," said NLC President Mayor Victoria Woodards of Tacoma, Washington. "I am proud to have Councilwoman Gabrielle Nelson join NLC's Small Cities Council. Together with a team of local leaders from around the country, we will work to address the toughest challenges facing our communities and ensure that America's cities, towns, and villages have the resources they need to thrive."
